

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 1231

March 24, 2013

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) to conduct a study to determine whether any changes are necessary to the salary structure of appellate judges and trial judges before the regular August election in 2014. The results shall be reported to the Senate Judiciary Committee and the Civil Justice Subcommittee by January 1, 2014.

Requires the District Attorneys General Conference (DAGC) to conduct a study to determine whether any changes are necessary to the salary structure of district attorneys general before the regular August election in 2014. The results shall be reported to the Senate Judiciary Committee and the Civil Justice Subcommittee by January 1, 2014.

Requires the District Public Defenders Conference (DPDC) to conduct a study to determine whether any changes are necessary to the salary structure of district public defenders before the regular August election in 2014. The results shall be reported to the Senate Judiciary Committee and the Civil Justice Subcommittee by January 1, 2014.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumption:

- According to the AOC and the DAGC, the required studies can be accommodated within existing resources. It is assumed that the required study can be accommodated within the DPDC's existing resources.

CERTIFICATION:

The information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Lucian D. Geise".

Lucian D. Geise, Executive Director

/trm

SB 1231